Library Meeting Room Policy

1. Overview

The purpose of the Bentonville Public Library meeting rooms is to provide space for library programs and events, to fulfill the library's role as a community center where the public can freely attend educational, cultural or civic events, and to champion the principle of intellectual freedom by providing a forum for the exchange of ideas.

No person's right to attend a public meeting or program will be denied or abridged because of origin, age, race, sex, background, views, sexual orientation or disability. No person's right to attend a public meeting or program of a non-profit organization will be denied or abridged because of membership or lack of membership in that organization or group.

It is the policy of the Bentonville Public Library to provide meeting room space to Benton County residents or property owners who possess a valid Bentonville Public Library card.

Library-sponsored programs and programs of the Bentonville Public Library's affiliated organizations will be given priority in the reservation of meeting room space. Thereafter, requests are considered in the following order:

- City of Bentonville agencies
- Community non-profit cultural or civic organizations providing free public programs.
- All other uses, including organizations, groups, businesses and for-profit entities

Permission to use a library meeting room does not in any way constitute an endorsement or approval by the library of the beliefs, positions or actions of anyone using the facility.

The use of the name, address or telephone number of the Bentonville Public Library as the address or headquarters for any group or organization using the library for meeting purposes is prohibited. Publicity generated by a group or organization for a meeting or event in a library meeting room may recite the library name, address and appropriate room designation only.

Groups who publicly announce their meetings by purchasing advertising, widely distributing, or mailing information to the public must include the following disclaimer in their announcements. "Use of the Bentonville Public Library meeting facilities does not constitute endorsement of the beliefs, viewpoints, policies or affiliations of the user by the Bentonville Public Library."

Any organization or group wishing to use a meeting room must complete the Online Meeting Room Request Form accessible via the library's website. The reservation is not confirmed until the requester receives approval from library administration or designated staff. A new application form must be completed for each request.
