

Name _____ Teacher _____ Period ____

- 1. Encyclopedia of Arkansas-Do a search for Japanese Internment camps. Name two locations for them in Arkansas _____ and _____.
Click on Arkansas Overview in the center panel of the database and write down the population of Arkansas in 2010 _____.
- 2. eLibrary Curriculum-What are the two self-contained databases in this database?
_____ and _____. Do a Search for banned books. How many magazine articles are available on this topic? _____.
What is the lexile of the article "We Should Celebrate Freedom to Read"? _____.
Under Topic Search name one subtopic under English, Language Arts. _____.
- 3. Issues and Controversies- Do a search for "Cell Phones in Schools". In the 1st article "Have cellular telephones had a positive influence on modern society?"
Name one state that has banned the use of cell phones of any kind while driving.
_____.
- 4. Rosen Core Biology-With this database you login using your library card number or your login and password? (Circle the correct answer.) Click on Cell Biology on the first page.
Click on Cell Types then on Stem Cells and Cell Diversity. What is the title of the diagram provided?
_____.
Click on the Explore, Create & Learn button on the lower left. Name one video from the video gallery.

Your other Rosen databases are very similar- Rosen Chemistry and the Rosen Periodic Table.
- 5. Tutor.com is open online every day between _____ and _____. Click on View Study Resources in the lower left hand corner. Choose a Topic _____ Subject _____ and subtopic _____. Name one resource you find

_____.
- 6. World Book Advanced-Do a search for Halloween. Click on the article Halloween. Locate the lexile of the article then email the article to yourself along with the lexile & MLA citation in the message box. Open your school email and show it to your teacher or library media specialist and have them initial here _____.